Let the Sun shine on Looe beach

Sunday 23rd September 2012

10.30am to Noon

East Looe Town Beach

On Sunday 23rd September there will be no meeting at GCC Morval in the morning. Instead we will be joining the “Let the Sun shine on Looe beach” event 10.30am to 12noon. GCC is wholeheartedly supporting this venture run by The Rusty Bucket as part of their vision for “Loving, serving and investing in our community”. Here’s what Paul Penhaligan of The Rusty Bucket has to say about it:

“Having visited Looe Music Festival’s website www.looemusic.co.uk we noticed an opportunity they had in their programme to co-ordinate a Sunday morning time of praise and worship for locals and visitors to the festival - Capacity is 6,000! - What a fantastic opportunity for Looe to see people of all ages pouring into the Looe Beach arena for a time of worship – the sound will fill the valley! We are so excited by its potential and would genuinely value the Cornish Christian Community turning up en masse to participate and enjoy the occasion. Families that may not normally attend church together could be brought together for this event. Please consider whom you may invite and/or whom you may offer a lift to?”

We hope you will embrace the vision and attend. Whatever your Christian background, we believe that you will get something out of this morning. We have local Christians spanning 3 generations being interviewed (tops 3 minutes each!) about life changing experiences. We have Philip Sharp of Looe sharing his views on Jesus and we have local Christians leading a range of songs from well known traditional to contemporary classics.

Come and join us - You will not be disappointed. Those not able to stand may bring along seating or take advantage of the 110 deck chairs that will be available on the day. A recently released Facebook page is available on <http://www.facebook.com/LooeBeach> .”
